2011 MASS INTENTIONS

From November 1, 2010 to November 15, 2010, our mass intention book will be opened to parishioners for the year of 2011. In the last year we were so overloaded with requests that we have to adjust our policy. Starting November 1 we will begin accepting mass intentions from parish members for only one Sunday mass and two daily masses. We are trying to accommodate a large amount of requests and we have to leave some calendar space for requests for recently deceased relatives. We schedule on a first come, first serve basis. We always try to work with people so they can have the dates they want, but unfortunately, that's not always possible. You may want to consider having one mass for more than one deceased member of your family. If we cannot accommodate your request, you might want to consider an organization like the Seraphic Mass Association. A mass request sheet will be inserted in the bulletin the weekend of October 30 & 31, 2010.

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

The weekend of October 30-31, dioceses throughout our nation will be celebrating Priesthood Sunday, a celebration sponsored by Serra International. Since its inception a number of years ago, this event continues to grow in popularity. It's a day set aside for parishioners to say "thank you" to priests for their spiritual guidance, direction and care given on a daily basis. A sincere expression of gratitude, i.e. a "hearty handshake", a "gentle pat on the back" or "note of thanks" is deemed most appropriate. A Spiritual Bouquet offering (consisting of any assortment of prayers) given individually or by a group is just one of many alternatives in which you can participate. Please join in the spirit of this celebration by giving support to the pastor of your parish and his fellow priests.

CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Central Catholic High School's Open House for students and their families will be held on Sunday, November 7, from 12 to 2:30 p.m. All are welcome to come and explore the school first hand. In addition, the placement test for eighth grade boys who wish to attend Central Catholic starting in fall of 2011 will be administered on Saturday, December 11. There is no fee for this test. Registration for the test can be completed online at www.CentralCatholicHS.com. Contact the Admissions Office at 412-621-7505 with any questions.
