A NOTE OF THANKS

As the work on our kitchen renovations begins to conclude a note of thanks to all those who have been a tremendous blessing to the parish by offering their gifts to us. Thanks to Larry Dichiera for offering his craftsmanship and time to this and multiple projects in the parish. Thanks to Denny Capezzuto and Dick DeFazio for building cabinets and helping in numerous other ways. Thanks to Andy Migliorato for offering his engineering skills. Thanks to Cathy Wreath for constantly volunteering to straighten up our messes. Thanks to Tony Veltre for his counsel and constant support and for donating a new three station warmer. Thanks to Ed Kapsha for generously volunteering his electrician skills to this project--we are tremendously indebted to him for his service. Special thanks to Mike Marchesiano, our maintenance man for offering his services above and beyond the call of duty. Thanks also to all the families that keep our kitchen up and running and always volunteer to help whenever there is a need--especially the Petrarcas, Mazzellas, Donatellis, Fiumaras, Sarsfields, Ianuccis, Cappellas, Marchitellos, Santimauros, and so many others who are always giving. My God bless the work we have done and use it for His glory, honor and praise.

Is Child Sexual Abuse Still a Crisis Today?

Is child sexual abuse still a crisis today? Regardless of the answer, we are faced with both good and bad news. Instead of scandalous headlines and emotionally charged confrontations, child sexual abuse has become a very sad reality in our daily lives. Child sexual abuse has been, is and will continue to be a societal evil that must be battled each and every day for as long as there are children to protect. But if we are willing to face this daily challenge, to tackle this unfortunate and tragic problem, to treat child safety and security as a ministry, then it truly can be said that we are part of the solution.

Pro-Life Corner

Black women are 3 times more likely to have an abortion than white women. Most abortion mills are found in poor -and/or minority neighborhoods. What does that tell you about one the reasons for abortion? Perhaps it goes back to the Planned Parenthood founder Margaret Sanger. Her goal was to eliminate all poor, black, Hispanic and many other ethnic people thereby creating a "master race". Abortion on demand is racist.
