Dear Fellow Parishioners:

I am very pleased and grateful to report that, thanks to your generosity, I have reached my fundraising goal of $3,700 to support my summer mission to Togo, West Africa in July of 2018, sponsored by FOCUS (the Fellowship of Catholic University Students). Over 50% of that total was contributed by parishioners from Word of God and Madonna del Castello! As you know from my appeal letter, I will be traveling to Atchanve, a small village in Togo, West Africa where we will be working with Fr. Ryan, an American priest who has been in Togo since 2006. Our work will range from helping with the construction of a new church and organizing donations to helping villagers with farming and working with children at the local Catholic school. It is truly a great opportunity to spread God's love and hope, while doing meaningful work for and with the Togolese people. I will continue to update you as I prepare to depart for the mission as well as when I return at the end of the summer. Please continue to pray for my fellow missionaries, the people we will be serving, and me. Know that you have a special place in my daily prayers. Again, thank you for your incredible support!

~ Lily Kondrich
