A NOTE FROM FATHER JOHN

Please keep those who were confirmed by Auxiliary Bishop William Waltersheid on Friday, March 16, at St. Bede Parish in your prayers: Alexander Bilyak, Nora Ottie & Kyra Rockovich.

Blessed Palms Disposal: Do not throw them in the garbage since they are a blessed sacramental that you can display in your home as a blessing. You may bring them to church for burning or burn them yourself in a fire that is not used as fuel for cooking. Bury the ashes.

Chrism Mass: Holy Thursday, 10:00 a.m., Cathedral. The Bishop will bless the sacramental oils and the priests of the Diocese renew unity with the Bishop.

No Eucharistic Adoration before the Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Vigil ceremonies and the Easter Sunday Masses.

Holy Thursday and Good Friday Notes: The tabernacle will be empty for the Holy Thursday Mass (the Blessed Sacrament will be reserved at the Blessed Mother altar) and the Good Friday Celebration of the Lord's Passion. Please do not genuflect to the tabernacle; bow to the altar instead.

Good Friday is a day of fasting (ages 18-59, one full meal and 2 lighter meals) and abstaining from meat (14 and older).

Good Friday Stations of the Cross at noon at Word of God.

Good Friday Holy Land Collection is used to maintain the holy shrines and assist the Franciscan missionaries who serve in the Holy Land.

Good Friday Veneration of the Cross: The rite calls for the use of just one cross instead of several. Since the practice began centuries ago by venerating the wooden relics of the True Cross, it is appropriate to use a cross instead of a crucifix. People will approach the cross in 2 columns. They may bow, kiss, or touch the wood of the cross. A genuflection is optional.

Incense: The cloud of incense smoke symbolizes prayer rising to God (see Psalm 141:2 and Revelation 8:3-5). It also honors sacred persons and things in liturgical worship. Incense will be used on Holy Thursday, the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday.

The Easter Vigil fulfills the Sunday Mass obligation.

Rest: While Joseph shows us the dignity of work, he had some of his best moments as he slept. It was here that God spoke to him repeatedly through dreams. We can distinguish two types of rest: physical sleep and spiritual abandonment to God. Both are critical for holiness. Sleep renews us for another day of work and love. Just ask the mother of a newborn about the importance of sleep. Abandonment increases our hope in God's loving providence, strengthening our faith in times of trials and creating room for love to grow.

Family: Joseph was a great man, but where would he be without his family, without Jesus and Mary? I doubt he would make many appearances in 21st-century blog posts—most 1st-century Jewish carpenters don't. Joseph's holiness came through Jesus and Mary, by serving them and receiving from them. Similarly, God draws us to Himself through those around us. We do not become saints as isolated individuals, but as members of a family or community.

Lent is a good opportunity to examine our closest relationships. Is there a need to forgive? Is there love that needs rekindling? Is there gratitude missing? These are excellent ways of giving alms.

5. Jesus and Mary: Of course, Joseph's family isn't your normal family. There's a special grace about Jesus and Mary (understatement of the year). If we compare our families to the Holy Family, we might be tempted to discouragement. But by God's goodness, Jesus and Mary are not distant, but rather intimately close to us: Jesus is our savior and brother, and Mary is our tender mother. Joseph, for his part, can help stay close to Jesus and Mary, just as he did. In the end, all of our Lenten practices are simply saying "yes" to Jesus, just as Mary first did at the Annunciation. May Mary pray for us, and may Jesus bring us to the Father.

-Br. Joseph Martin Hagan, O.P.

Miss Mary Beth Koontz. The “Living Stations” is an experiential musical journey through Christ’s Passion, as well as a spiritual wake-up call that provides a visual realization of what Christ went through on His way to the Cross. The music evolves and propels the participants through the story so that each feels present at the foot of the cross, not just as an observer, but as an active participant in salvation history. These Stations reflect deeply on the Scriptural accounts of Jesus Christ’s Passion to help us prepare for Holy Week. We hope you can join us as we proceed on our Lenten journey. Admission is free.

Divine Mercy Novena

A public recitation of the Divine Mercy Novena will be conducted at Madonna and Word of God beginning on Good Friday and continuing until the Second Sunday of Easter — Divine Mercy Sunday. In preparation for the Feast, our Lord asked Saint Faustina to make a novena of prayer beginning on Good Friday and He gave her a different intention to bring before him on each of the days.

Three times within her diary, Saint Faustina records our Lord's promise to grant complete forgiveness of sins and punishment on the Feast of Mercy. He says:

"I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy" (1109)

"Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" (300)

"The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" (699)

Thus, to fittingly observe the Feast of Mercy, we should:

1. Celebrate the Feast on the Sunday after Easter
2. Sincerely repent of all our sins
3. Place our complete trust in Jesus
4. Go to Confession, preferably before that Sunday
5. Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast
6. Venerate the Image of the Divine Mercy
7. Be merciful to others, through our actions, words, and prayers on their behalf
