PEACE AND PRAYER DAY-Sept. 9: Catholic

Charities of the Diocese of Pittsburgh is hosting a Day for Peace and Prayer in front of its offices in downtown Pittsburgh, 212 Ninth Street. Bishop David A.
Zubik will lead the prayer service at 11:00 a.m. The service should last approximately 30 minutes. The local event is in conjunction with the United States Conference of Catholic bishops (USCCB) and Catholic Charities USA, who established Sept. 9th as a Day for Peace and Prayer.

Because the family is the root of society, we want our family to fulfill its vocation to build the common good.

God is not solitary. He is a communion of persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
As men and women we are created in this image. By our very nature, we are intended to belong to a communion, or community of persons. Through baptism, God has transformed us into his children and given us entrance into the community of the Church. This community is an exceptional one: It is the family of God. In it, each of us—as the sons and daughter of God—are called to care for each other.

When we seek to care for each other by making our individual families reflect the community of persons which is the Trinity, we truly build our family as the domestic church.

Meditation: From St. John Paul II's Letter to Families.

The civilization of love evokes joy: joy, among other things, for the fact that a man has come into the world (cf.
Jn 16:21), and consequently because spouses have become parents. The civilization of love means “rejoicing in the right” (cf. I Cor 13:6). But a civilization inspired by a consumerist, anti-birth mentality is not and cannot ever be a civilization of love. If the family is so important for the civilization of love, it is because of the particular closeness and intensity of the bonds which come to be between persons and generations within the family.

1. How is the family important in society? How do families shape our communities?
2. Does our family “rejoice in the right?” Do we recognize the joy and reasons for happiness in our communities, or do we only dwell upon the negative? What can we do to transform the negativity in our home and communities?
3. How do I think the saints—in particular, the Blessed Mother—would act in my community with its needs?
How can we help it become a civilization of love?

Family Project: God calls upon us to be good citizens and to serve our communities. Talk to your family about service members of your community, such as police officers and firefighters, those holding public office, and those in the armed forces or similar services. Work with local groups to send care packages and letters to active duty members of the armed forces serving overseas. Visit elderly veterans and spend time with them talking, reading or playing a game as a way to show appreciation for their past service.
