MUSIC NOTES:

Recently, we asked choir members at St. Maurice why they choose to volunteer in the music ministry. Over the next few weeks, we are going to share some of their responses in this column:

"Singing in our choir is my prayer for giving thanks to God for my life. (My voice may not be perfect, but I don't think He minds all that much because that's the one He gave to me.)". ~ Karen Shiner

"Why do I volunteer to sing? I love being in the music ministry because I am not only giving back to something I believe in, I am part of something larger than myself. And the friendships gained are lifelong friends." ~ Jim Kaufman

"I had never sung in a choir. I don't think I ever sang in the shower. The most I sang would have been when I was little and we drove to Kansas in our 1947 Studebaker. We had to do something to keep us from going crazy. You can only look at so much corn. Being in the choir made me more aware of the "seasons" of the liturgical year. The music chosen to represent those seasons was always beautiful. Well, not always beautiful. There were those occasional pieces that were, to say the least, interesting. The choir filled an emptiness I felt after I retired. It strengthened my faith and it gave me new friends; quirky, annoying, crazy friends and made some days that were dark a little brighter. Come join us. You'll be amazed at how good it will make you feel." ~ Nancy Ball

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP DEVOTIONS are conducted every Thursday after the 9:30am Mass at Word of God Parish. The 10 minute devotional concludes with a blessing of the Assembly with the icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The icon shows Mary protecting Jesus with her arms around Him. Her solemn face looks directly at us as the archangel Michael and Gabriel bring the instruments of Christ's crucifixion, a lance, sponge, cross, and nails.

The icon shows Mary protecting Jesus with her arms around Him. Her solemn face looks directly at us as the archangel Michael and Gabriel bring the instruments of Christ's crucifixion, a lance, sponge, cross, and nails.

God didn't add another day in your life because you needed it, He added it because someone out there needs you.

Faithful Chronicles

By Father Frank D. Almade

In 2010 Bishop Zubik gave me one of the best gifts I have ever received. He allowed me to take six weeks off from parish ministry and make a 30-day silent retreat. I followed the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola at the Eastern Point Jesuit Retreat House in Gloucester, Massachusetts.

Every retreatant had a director. Mine was a wise older Jesuit priest, Ken Hughes. We met every day for 30-45 minutes, as he guided me through the exercises.

At our first meeting Ken encouraged me to take it easy the first few days, and adapt to the gentle pace of praying several times a day without any ministerial responsibilities. He suggested that Revelation 3:20 be the first Scripture passage I reflect on. “Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me.”

This biblical verse was new to me. The “I” in the verse is Jesus Christ. Jesus wanted to enter my house, my life, my heart. Was I willing to open the door and let him in? Yes!

Thus began a superlative-beyond-words spiritual journey for me, as I tried to open the door wider and wider to Christ on retreat. Every day since then I attempt to push the door open a little more.

Recently I read the short sermon Buenos Aires Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio gave to 150 Cardinals at the Vatican after the shocking resignation of Pope Benedict XVI in 2013. In that speech Bergoglio referenced this very passage. He said, “Obviously the text refers to Jesus knocking from the outside in order to enter. But I think about the times in which Jesus knocks from within so that we let him out. The self-referential Church seeks to keep Jesus Christ within herself and she does not let him out.”

Four days after Bergoglio gave that sermon those same Cardinals elected him the 266th bishop of Rome, Pope Francis.

As we begin the journey of making two former groupings of parishes into one, and ultimately into one new parish community, let me suggest that it is good for us to reflect on this Scripture passage.

On the one hand each of us is on a unique spiritual journey “to learn Jesus, to love Jesus, and to live Jesus” (in the words of the prayer for On Mission for the Church Alive). Each one of us has to open our homes, our lives, our hearts, to meet Jesus. We do this by praying, by reading the Bible, especially the Gospels, by receiving him in the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confession, and by loving the poor as he did (see Matthew 25:31-45).

On the other hand each of us, and our parishes, cannot keep Jesus cooped up in our church buildings, organizations or activities. We have to take the Jesus we meet at our doorway into the streets, roads and by-ways of our world. Jesus met a wide variety of people in his native region of Galilee and on the streets of Jericho and Jerusalem (for example, a man born blind, a widow who lost her only son, a tax collector, a woman afflicted with hemorrhages, the fishermen who became his apostles). The stories of how he encountered these folks are the stories of our Gospels, and stories of salvation.

We too meet lots of people in our travels. Do we bring Jesus to them, by our smile or kind word, by our gentleness and forgiveness? Do we the church, the people of God, go out of our way to meet folks who live “on the wrong side of the tracks,” who have “nuthin’ but trouble” in their lives, who are hurting in body or mind or soul—and need to experience the mercy of Jesus in how we treat them? Who need us to be the hands and heart of Jesus Christ extended to them? Pope Francis calls this “going to the peripheries.” The Catholic Church calls this evangelization.

These are our challenges. Meeting Jesus and allowing him deeper into our everyday lives. Going out with Jesus as he shares the love of our Father with hurt or broken people. May the Holy Spirit help each of us and our parishes to share Jesus by our deeds and words.

MISSION WEEK 2019: ANCHORED IN CHRIST YOUTH TESTIMONIES

Over the next several weeks, youth who attended Mission Week from our grouping will share about their experiences. May you all be inspired by their testimonies of faith.

Throughout Mission Week, I saw God clearly in many different ways and in many different people. For example, my work group visited three different sites, and from weeding to painting, my group leader let God's light and love shine through her as she worked and inspired us. Overall, the prayerful and compassionate attitude of the coordinators, volunteers, and other teens allowed for a unique and special experience. -Lianna Rishel

Youth in each work group give a signed cross to the owners at each work site as a memento of the group's time there. Pictured here is a cross signed by Lianna's group.

BELLS! BELLS! BELLS!

Within our parish grouping, Good Shepherd, St. Maurice and Word of God all have traditions of vibrant Bell Choir ministries, but currently only the Good Shepherd Ringers are active. We plan to change that this summer! Excitement is building after our 3 Intro to Handbells sessions! Next up: Handbell Camp

Please email Norm at nchapman@saintmauriceparish.org to register for the Handbell Camp. Please note that the session will be limited to 11 ringers to allow for personalized attention, and slots will be filled in the order in which they are received, so sign up today. Given the level of interest, we expect that the session will fill up. If the session is filled, we will happily add additional sessions to accommodate all interested ringers.

While the ability to read music is certainly helpful to new ringers, it is not required! Everyone (grade 6 to adult) is welcome to join us. We know you'll enjoy yourself!
